

A detailed illustration in a classic, slightly faded style serves as the background. It depicts a scene from a Bockfest celebration. In the center, a man in a red and white outfit is dancing or performing. To his right, a man in a dark coat and hat is playing a lute. On the left, a large wooden barrel is labeled 'BOCK BEER'. In the foreground, a large, stylized letter 'B' is visible. The overall scene is festive and traditional.
